

- Global Money Week - The AMMC partners with the Moroccan Foundation for Financial Education

Rabat, March 20th 2023

The AMMC is committed to supporting financial education of youth by participating in the 11th edition of Global Money Week, which will take place from March 20th to April 2nd, 2023 (GMW).

Global Money Week is an annual global campaign organized by the OECD/INFE to raise awareness about financial issues. The campaign aims to help young people develop skills that enable them to take informed financial decisions. This year, GMW is celebrated under the theme "Plan your money, plant your future".

The AMMC, as a founding member of the Moroccan Foundation for Financial Education (FMEF), has reaffirmed its commitment to promoting financial education by offering a variety of programs designed to strengthen young people's knowledge on topics related to savings and investment in the capital market.

Therefore, the Moroccan Capital Market Authority plans to:

- Hold information sessions and conferences intended for university students;
- Launch the third edition of the " Quiz Finance " competition for students, the contest will take place in several cities of the Kingdom;
- Organise workshops aiming to promote financial education in schools participating in the "Quiz Finance" contest.

Moreover, the AMMC will provide the public with various educational materials, including:

- Two new "Investor's Guide" editions;
- Two educational videos on UCITS and IPOs;
- New content in the " Quiz Finance " application.

