

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority takes part in the Global Money Week alongside the Moroccan Foundation for Financial Education

Rabat, March 22nd , 2021

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC) reiterates its commitment to promoting financial education for young people and participates in Global Money Week (GMW), a worldwide campaign organized by the OECD International Network for Financial Education (OECD/INFE).

Since its establishment, Global Money Week gathered over 63,000 institutions from 175 countries around a variety of programs reaching more than 40 million children and youth.

Celebrated this year between March 22 and April 09, 2021 under the theme "Take care of yourself and your money! ", GMW is an annual global awareness-raising campaign on the importance of ensuring that young people are financially aware and are gradually acquiring the knowledge necessary to make sound financial decisions.

As an active member of the Moroccan Foundation for Financial Education (FMEF), the AMMC has been participating in this annual event since 2018 and aims through its program to strengthen the knowledge of the young public on the topics of saving and investing in the capital market.

To introduce young people to the world of finance, the authority's program includes:

- The organization of webinars for university students;
- Providing secondary school teachers with pedagogical materials developed by AMMC teams;
- The publication of two new investor guides;
- The organization of a competition through the mobile application "Quiz Finance".

In addition, the AMMC will organize a training session for the trainers of the Moroccan Foundation for Financial Education (FMEF) on the organization and functioning of the capital market.
