

Press release

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority and the National Press Council launch a training session for journalists

Rabat, March 19, 2021

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC) and the National Press Council (CNP) gave the kick-off on friday, March 19, for a training session dedicated to journalists from the moroccan press.

Intended for arabic-speaking journalists, this training aims to better equip journalists and enable them to acquire additional knowledge for a better understanding and analyzing of the capital market in Morocco.

The Moroccan capital market being in constant evolution, the training modules provided by the AMMC will help to contribute to the development of a strong financial culture among the public for whom the media are the main source of information.

Led by Mr. Mouad Tanouti, Director of Standardization and Legal Affairs at the AMMC, the first training session was devoted to the prerogatives and missions of the AMMC and introduced a general view of the capital market, its actors and its functioning.

This meeting was attended by 15 journalists from different media outlets.

About The Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC)

AMMC is the authority regulating the Morocco capital market, the institution's mission is to ensure the protection and transparency of the capital market in Morocco.

About National Press Council

The National Press Council (CNP) is a self-regulatory body in the press and journalistic ethics. It was created by law 90-13 in 2016, in application of Article 28 of the 2011 constitution. Various objectives and powers are assigned to it.

Under the law, the CNP's mission is to ensure compliance with ethical rules, to defend press freedom, to give its opinion on draft laws and regulations concerning the profession or its exercise, to issue press cards, to carry out arbitration and mediation missions and to help upgrade the press business and media professionals.

For more information, please contact :

Moroccan Capital Market Authority

Ms. Dania BOUHLAL

E-Mail: danial.bouhlal@ammc.ma

Tel: 07 07 29 19 31