The Moroccan Capital Market Authority hosts magistrates from the Public Prosecutor Office for an exchange seminar

Rabat, March 25, 2021

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority organized this morning a seminar for magistrates from the Public Prosecutor Office regarding the regulation of the capital market, its actors and the supervisory role exercised by the Moroccan Capital Market Authority.

This seminar was organised under the partnership and cooperation agreement concluded last December between the Moroccan Capital Market Authority and the Presidency of the Public Prosecutor. This agreement covers the coordination of offenses relating to the capital market, the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism and the establishment of a training program in the field of the capital market.

Held simultaneously face to face and via videoconference at the AMMC headquarters, the seminar was attended by 30 magistrates and judges practicing in different cities of the Kingdom and was also a space for exchange and enrichment both for the magistrates and the AMMC staff who took part in this meeting..

This seminar is the first in a series of meetings planned for 2021.
