

PRESS RELEASE

AMMC AND CSPJ JOINTLY HOLD THEIR FIRST KNOWLEDGE-SHARING MEETING

A new step in implementing the framework partnership agreement signed by the two institutions on 20 May 2026.

Rabat, 30 September 2026

The Superior Council of the Judicial Power (CSPJ) and the Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC) jointly held their first knowledge-sharing meeting on Tuesday, 30 September, at the AMMC headquarters in Rabat, under the framework partnership and cooperation agreement signed by the two institutions on 20 May 2026.

This partnership between the AMMC and the CSPJ seeks to build bridges for cooperation and establish a framework conducive to dialogue, the exchange of expertise and mutual capacity-building. Against a backdrop of increasingly interconnected markets, evolving and diversifying financial products, wider public access to these products and emerging multidimensional threats, this cooperation helps foster a swift and coordinated response by judicial authorities and regulators.

This first meeting brought together more than thirty judges and prosecutors from various regions of Morocco, CSPJ representatives and AMMC staff, as part of the series of exchanges provided for under the agreement.

Discussions focused in particular on the regulation and functioning of the capital market, the mandate of the CSPJ, the organisation of Morocco's judicial system and criminal justice policy on securities offences.

This initiative reflects the two institutions' shared commitment to combining their respective expertise to strengthen legal and regulatory certainty for investments, enhance capital market transparency and safeguard economic and financial public order.
